

CALENDAR ADDENDUM - 2006-2007

Please note the following changes/corrections to the 2006-2007 academic calendar (changes/corrections are in bold print):

- Ø p.5 - correction to the Calendar of Events:
Calendar of Events 2006-2007
August 31 - Thursday - Arrival of new students, Commencement

- Ø changes to academic regulation 6.6.2, the addition of academic regulation 6.6.3, and changes to 7.2.3 and 7.3.5 approved by Senate, effective under the 2006-2007 academic calendar.

- p. 20 6.6.2 – Additional Requirements to be replaced by the following:
6.6.2 Academic Residency Requirements

Normally students must complete with courses from Mount Allison:

i) at least half of the credits required for a degree
ii) at least half of the requirements for a Major or Honours programme, including all 3/4000 level credits subject to 6.6.3

iii) at least 6 credits of the requirements for a Minor

Exceptions must be approved by an Academic Dean.

6.6.3 Transfer Credits at the 3/4000 Level

Normally no more than six credits transferred at the 3/4000 level may be used to fulfill 3/4000 level requirements. Exceptions must be approved by an Academic Dean. (see also regulations 6.5.1 and 6.5.2)

- p. 30 Bachelor of Arts - 7.2.3 3/4000 Level Courses

A minimum of 36 credits must be earned from courses at the 3000 and/or 4000 level. Normally at least 30 credits must be from Mount Allison courses.

- p. 33 Bachelor of Science -7.3.5 3/4000 Level Science Courses

A minimum of 30 credits in Science must be earned from the 3000 and/or 4000 level. Normally at least 24 credits must be from Mount Allison courses.

7.5.2 Requirements for a Bachelor of Commerce Degree

In order to qualify for a Bachelor of Commerce degree, a student must complete 120 credits including:

- a. 6 credits earned in each of the two distribution areas of Arts & Letters and Humanities (see 7.5.3)
- b. A minimum of 42 credits from the 3/4000 level (see 7.5.4)
- c. 42 credits from the Commerce Degree Core Programme requirements as listed in 7.5.5
- d. 27 additional Commerce elective credits, with at least 24 credits from 3/4000 level courses (see 7.5.6)
- e. Courses which satisfy the requirements of a Minor (see 7.5.7) *Note: this

7.5.6 Commerce Electives on the Bachelor of Commerce Degree

In addition to the Commerce courses required for the Core, 27 credits from Commerce elective courses are required with at least 24 credits from 3/4000 level courses. All Commerce courses other than those in the Core of the programme (see 7.5.5), as well as the following courses from other disciplines may also be counted as Commerce electives: Economics 2521, 3201, 3211, 3601, 3711, 3921, 4501, 4511, 4700, 4801, 4811, 4821, 4990, Computer Science 3851, and Religious Studies 3951, 3961.

7.5.7 The Minor as Required for the Bachelor of Commerce

All Bachelor of Commerce students must complete a Minor in a non-Commerce discipline from the list below or a Specially Approved Minor (see 7.2.17) No more than 9 credits can be counted in common between the Minor and the courses counted in 7.5.5 and 7.5.6. Where there are more than 9 credits of requirements in common, the credit value of the combined programme requirements will still be at least 84 credits. The Minor will be recorded on the transcript. Students who satisfy the requirements for more than one Minor will have the additional Minor(s) recorded on their transcript.

Note: the regulation requiring a Minor is waived for students pursuing Honours in Economics.

Minors Available for the Bachelor of Commerce Disciplinary

Anthropology
Art History
Biology
Chemistry
Classical Studies
Computer Science
Economics
English
Fine Arts
French Studies
Geography
German Studies
Greek

Hispanic Studies
History
Latin
Mathematics
Music
Philosophy
Physics
Political Science
Psychology
Religious Studies
Sociology
Women's Studies

Interdisciplinary

American Studies
Canadian Studies
Drama

Environmental Studies
International Economics and Business
Japanese Studies

7.5.8 Elective Credits

The remaining credits beyond those completed to fulfill 7.5.3, 7.5.5, 7.5.6 and 7.5.7 may be from any discipline. No more than 9 credits beyond those included in 7.5.5 and 7.5.6 may be from courses in the Commerce discipline. (A maximum of 60 credits from courses in the Commerce discipline is permitted to count toward the 120 credits required for a Bachelor of Commerce degree.)

7.5.9 Honours Programmes Available for the Bachelor of Commerce

Students who satisfy the requirements for an Honours programme [see section 7.5.10, 7.5.11] will have achieved a Bachelor of Commerce with Honours, and will have the Honours programme recorded on their transcript. Students with third year standing interested in pursuing Honours must apply to the Commerce Department by March 31, in the year in which they will have completed at least 84 credits. Students interested in pursuing Honours in Economics should contact the Economics Department. Academic regulation 6.8 governing the granting of Honours should be consulted. In addition to the prescribed Honours courses listed in 7.5.10 and 7.5.11, students must fulfill the general requirements for a Bachelor of Commerce degree as listed in 7.5.2. a), b), e) and f).

7.5.10 Commerce with Honours

Honours in Commerce is 69 credits earned as follows:

- 42 from the Commerce core requirements (see 7.5.5)
- 6 from Commerce 4990
- 21 from Commerce electives at the 3/4000 level

7.5.11 Commerce with Honours in Economics

Honours in Economics is 90 credits earned as follows:

- 42 from the Commerce core requirements (see 7.5.5)
- 15 from Economics 2001, 2011, 2101, 2111, 3501
- 12 from Economics 4001, 4011, 4700, 4801, 4811, 4821 and 4990
- 9 from Economics at the 3/4000 level
- 12 from Commerce or Economics at the 3/4000 level

Note: the regulation requiring a Minor is waived for students pursuing Honours in Economics

7.5.12 Major from Other Disciplines

Students who, in lieu of 7.5.7, complete a Major in a non-Commerce discipline as listed in 7.2.13 and 7.3.16 will have the Major recorded on their transcript. No more than 24 credits can be counted in common between the major and the courses counted in 7.5.5 and 7.5.6. Where there are more than 24 credits of requirements in common, the credit value of the combined programme requirements will still be at least 105 credits. Students who satisfy the requirements for a Specially Approved Major (see 7.2.12) will have that Major recorded on the transcript.

7.5.13 Transferring to Commerce

Students with second year standing applying for transfer into the Bachelor of Commerce programme must do so by APRIL 15 in the year in which they will have completed at least 54 credits. Exceptions must be approved by the Head of the Commerce Department. To be eligible to transfer to the Bachelor of Commerce, students must meet the following two criteria:

- a. the attainment of a CGPA of at least 2.0
- b. completion of the following 27 credits:
 - 12 credits from Mathematics 1111, Economics 1001 and 1011, 3 credits in Computer Science
 - 15 credits from Commerce 2101, 2131, 2201, 2301, 6 credits from Mathematics 2311 and 2321 ORved

2011

- Ø p 72 - changes to the Minor in Commerce, approved by Senate, effective under the 2006-2007 academic calendar

MINOR in Commerce is 24 credits earned as follows:

- 9 credits from the following 12 credits: MATH 1111, ECON 1001, 1011, and 3 credits in Computer Science
15 from Commerce, including at least 6 at the 3/4000 level

- Ø p. 40 - correction to third sentence in calendar regulation 7.11.2 Academic Credit for Independent International Experiential Learning
Normally, three credits per experience (to a maximum of 6 credits) may be assigned to an independent international experiential learning course (INEX 3/4000/01). ~~an appropriate special topics or practicum course, or non-designated credit~~ as recommended by the course supervisor and approved by an academic dean.

- Ø p 45 - changes to the American Studies programme, approved by Senate, effective under the 2006-2007 academic calendar

AMERICAN STUDIES

American Studies is an interdisciplinary programme that seeks to help students understand the United States of America through its history, literature, geography, politics and economics. The American Studies programme at Mount Allison is designed primarily for students who are interested in studying American history and literature, and who are also intrigued by broader thematic and disciplinary concerns in the intellectual apprehension of the United States.

Interdisciplinary B.A. Programme

MINOR in American Studies is 24 credits earned as follows:

- 9 from English 2701*, 3711*, 3721*
9 from History 1601, 1651, 2510
6 from English 3731*, 3741*, 4701*, Fine Arts 3061*, Geography 2201, 2311, 3301*, History 3511*, 3521*, 3531*, 3561*, 4500*, 4510*, 4571*, Political Science 2201*, 3310*, Spanish 3011

MAJOR AREA OF STUDY in American Studies is 60 credits earned as follows:

- 3 from English 1201
9 from English 2701*, 3711*, 3721*
6 from Geography 2311, 3301*
9 from History 1601, 1651, 2510
3 from Political Science 2201

30 from Economics 1001,1011, 3501*,3711*, English 3731*, 3741*, 3921*†, 3931*†, 4701*, 4951*†, Fine Arts 3061*, Geography 2201, History 3511*, 3521*, 3531*, 3561*, 4500*, 4510*, 4571*, 4951*†, International Relations 2301*, 3101*,4301*, Music 3211†, Political Science 2201*,3310*, Religious Studies 2841, Sociology 3431*, 3451*, Spanish 3011

HONOURS in American Studies is 78 credits earned as follows:

60 credits as in the Major, plus:

6 from either History 4990 or English 4990

12 additional credits from Economics 3501*, 3711*, English 3731*, 3741*, 3921*†, 3931*†, 4701*, 4951*†, Fine Arts 3061*, History 3511*, 3521*, 3531*, 3561*, 4500*, 4510*, 4571*, 4951*†, International Relations 3101*,4301*, Music 3211†, Political Science 3310*, Sociology 3431*, 3451*, Spanish 3011, or other 3/4000 level courses chosen in consultation with the Programme Coordinator.

Note: * indicates course requires pre-requisites

† indicates that the course may be approved for inclusion in the programme when a significant American Studies component can be demonstrated and is approved with permission of the instructor and the Programme Coordinator.